SUT*ine*
by Yojana

OUR STORY

"I wanted to bring back that softness, that ghar jasto feel."

As a Nepali woman, Yojana grew up around soft cotton, light fabrics and clothes made for comfort. So she stopped searching and started creating.

Every piece is made slowly, by hand, by a small team of skilled women in Nepal. Simple, but intentional. Nothing is rushed.

Our first collection blends culture and comfort, inspired by the traditional chaubandi choli with a quiet, modern touch.

With love, Yojana